RCMP reissues call for help finding woman missing for nearly 2 weeks

Submitted on November 12, 2013 - 3:13pm

paNOW Staff

The La Ronge RCMP is renewing its call for the public's help in its search for a missing 24-year-old woman from Sucker River, Sask.

Jodi Roberts was reported missing on Nov. 6, but was last seen at a residence in Sucker River on Oct. 31.

According to the RCMP, she could be in either the Prince Albert or Saskatoon areas, but she's also known to visit the Stanley Mission area.

A recent ground search by members of the community of the area Roberts was last seen failed to locate her.

She is described as aboriginal, five feet and four inches in height, 120 pounds, with brown eyes and hair.

Anyone with information is asked to contact the La Ronge RCMP at 306-425-6730 or call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.

In my personal opinion since she pretty much vanished without a trace I would b across somewhere and fell in, then wasn't able to get out again, it happens to of
